G-1 THE LITTLE CHURCH OF THE FLOWERS

FOREST LAWN MEMORIAL PARK, GLENDALE, CALIFORNIA

3A-H233

The Little Church of the Flower was built in 1917, and [illegible] by the quaint old-world village of [illegible] in Buckinghamshire, England, [illegible] by the poet Thomas Gray where [illegible] his "Elegy"

The Ivy-[illegible] Church of the Flowers with its gabled [illegible] typical of the village churches of Old [illegible] It is a regularly dedicated church, non-sectarian and non-denominational. Its only theology is Love; its congregation, all who dwell in the world.

POST CARD

"C.T.ART-COLO TONE" REG. U.S. PAT. OFF.

STERN PUBLISHING & NOVELTY CO., LOS ANGELES, CALIF.